

Winchester Jumelage Tastes French Wine

Winchester Massachusetts, May 1—A fine spring evening -- the flowering trees were just coming out and the spring flowers were in bloom -- and twenty members and guests of the Jumelage [in the background] assembled at Wine Country on Main street in Winchester to taste an assortment of French wines. Hosted by Mr. Steve Adezzio [on the right], proprietor of Wine Country and presented by Ms. Stephanie Korman of United Liquors [on the left], the guests enjoyed a fine evening sampling Vouvray, Cotes du Rhone Blanc, Bourgogne Blanc, Bourgogne Rouge, and Cotes du Rhone Rouge.

Hors d'oeuvres were supplied by Wine Country and by Whole Foods in the Horn Pond Plaza.

The guests enjoyed the evening and the conviviality – your editors surely did!!!

And, we trust that the host and the presenter also had a fine time.

note: from the Membership Committee – this is but one of the many benefit that accrue to those who pay their annual dues.

note: support your local merchants!!